AM FOR Judge Sam W. Williams, of my county, for Attorney-General," said Mr. Bruce C. Banks, n Southwest Virginis Democrat, who was at the Capitol yesterday, Mr. Banks was the superintendent of the Virginia Mineral and Timber Exhibit at the Jamestown Exposition, and is returning to his home in the Southwest after looking over affairs at the Exposition grounds with in the Southwest after looking affairs at the Exposition grounds in the Southwest after looking over affeirs at the Exposition grounds with reference to his charge.

"The property is all stored in the original building on the Exposition grounds," said Mr. Banks, "awaiting the completion of the new annex to the State Library, the lower pertion of which has been set apart by the Legislature for our purposes. On my recent visit I found the exhibit in good shape, and I believe it will be good shape, and I believe it will be good shape, and I believe it will be more and place it in its permanent here and place it in its permanent forms. "But, coming back to politics," said Mr. Banks, "I think Judge William deserves to win the fight for the Attorney-Generalship this time.

For twenty-live years he has spent his money and canvassed freely for his party, and it looks as if these things ought to count for something. He resigned a circuit judgeship in 1836 in order to make a fruitless race for Congress, and long before and ever since that time he has been a prominent leader and advocate of the principles of his party.

race for Congress, and long before and ever since that time he has been a prominent leader and advocate of the principles of his party.

"How about the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Ninth District?" was asked.

"I do not know," was the reply.

"The party leaders tave called a convention to meet at Pulsaki Cily on August 5th, and there are no candidates, but we will put up a man and make a strong fight. Former Governor J. Hoge Tyler is talked of, and there is also much pressure being brought to bear upon former Senaton Robert P. Bruce, of Wise, who made a gallant race two years ago, and who for brought the Republican majority down to a point which looked very hopeful for the Democrats."

Mr. Banks will be in the city for several days, having a number of private matters to look after here before he leaves for his home.

Upright Piano.

It looks like a brand new instrument! Its handsome case doesn't show a scratch or may of any sort. Its former owner had it only a short time, when she turned it over to us a part payment on an artistic STIEFF.

It has a full, rich tone. In fact, it is one of America's best $500 instruments. We'll sell it for only
